

GOP Voters and the Suburbs Are REJECTING the Biden FTC's Crusade Against Amazon

WRONG WAY

CAUTION DANGER ZONE!

New National Research, Inc. poll commissioned by NetChoice shows suburban & conservative voters think coming FTC lawsuit is a waste of U.S. resources.

84%

of Americans, 92% of Republicans think forthcoming FTC lawsuit against Amazon is a waste of government resources.

77%

of conservatives and 62% of suburban residents said the FTC's reported lawsuit against Amazon is "big government overreach" and is MORE LIKELY to harm consumers than benefit them.

79%

of conservatives said the government should be focused on businesses and industries conducting "true fraud and malpractice", NOT Amazon.

68%

of Americans say potential consequences from the FTC's lawsuit show the agency's approach to business is wrong.

F 8%

of Americans said the FTC is doing an excellent job. Meanwhile, 48% said the FTC is doing a mediocre or poor job at acting in their best interest.

Worst

The FTC was the 2nd most unpopular agency in the U.S. that NetChoice tested among conservatives, coming second only to the DOJ. Maybe next time, they'll get #1!

Americans love and support the free market. They want the government to stop attacking beneficial services like Amazon.